Dr. Vernon Nash, First Assembly Speaker, Talks on Federal Union

Speaker Is Founder of School of Journalism in Peiping, China.

Noted Religious Leader

Served as Visiting Professor in Journalism at University of Missouri in 1932.

Nothing in the future is more certain than that there will be very great changes in the political world order during the 1940's. The supreme question with greatest interest to the overwhelming majority of Americans is what the United States should do in addition to the measures for defense to which it has already committed itself. This is the proposition that was presented by Dr. Vernon Nash Thursday morning at the first assembly of the spring term, in an address entitled "The Choice We Face."

In his talk, Dr. Nash discussed the various choices open to the world and the problems and difficulties connected with some of them with particular reference to the proposal advanced by Federal Unionists to establish a satisfactory union of free peoples as the nucleus of a democratic world government. According to Dr. Nash, in this integrated and inter-dependent world, it is no longer possible to depend alone on unenforceable, voluntary agreements among nations; international relations simply must be governed, he believes, if there is to be a peaceable and civilized world. Dr. Nash is convinced that the Federal principle, invented by our fathers, can be applied to relations between nations today just as it was in 1787 to solve similar problems between the 13 original states.

Dr. Nash founded the first school of journalism at Yenching University, Peiping, China, and served as professor of journalism there from 1924 to 1936. He was visiting professor of journalism at the University of Missouri in 1932. He is the author of "Educating for Journalism." In addition to his newspaper and educational experience, Dr. Nash is a religious leader. He is a member of the Society of Friends (Quaker) and a member of the National Council of the Fellowship of Reconciliation. He is giving most of his time to lecturing in connection with the work of Federal Unionists. He was one of the drafters of "The Alternative to International Anarchy," a pamphlet published jointly by the Federal Council of Churches and the Foreign Missions Conference.

Dr. Nash is now making a lecture tour on behalf of Federal Union. Both from their national headquarters in New York City and through affiliated local chapters, in many parts of the United States Federal Unionists are conducting an intensive educational campaign. Part of the purpose of this campaign is to show that Federal Union is an American idea invented by the Fathers of the American Constitution when they were faced 150 years ago with the problem of creating a workable federal government for the United States without depriving the various states of local autonomy in matters of purely local concern. Federal Union maintains that the still existing free democracies of the

Colleen Huiatt Will Attend Convention

The Women's Athletic Association of the College will have its first official representative at the convention of the American Federation of College Women which is to be held this year at Albuquerque, New Mexico, March 20, 21, and 22.

The local organization joined the national federation just this year. Last year Virginia Ramsay was sent as a delegate to the National convention, which was held at Greeley, Colorado. Her purpose at the convention was to report on the question of whether or not W. A. A. should join the federation.

This year W. A. A. voted to send Colleen Huiatt as the delegate and Emma Isabell Brown as the alternate to the district convention.

Graduate Elected to Office

Miss Louie Youngman, a graduate of the College with the class of 1927, is vice-president of the newly organized branch of the American Association of University Women at Bethany.

College People Go East for National Educational Meet

Assisted by Members of Faculty, Students Are Perfecting Plans.

President Uel W. Lamkin, Dean J. W. Jones, Miss Olive S. De Luca, chairman of the Art Department, and Mr. H. R. Dieterich, of the Department of Education, attended the meeting of the National Educational Association in Atlantic City, New Jersey, February 21. They returned February 26.

President Lamkin and Dean Jones attended the meetings of the American Association of School Administrators the first part of the week. The program of the American Association of Teachers Colleges, which they attended the latter part of the week, is concerned with the future development of the teachers colleges in the national crisis. Dr. Charles W. Hunt, secretary of the association, gave a review of the twenty five years of development of the association. Dr. J. W. Studebaker, Commissioner of Education, discussed the national defense program.

Mr. Dieterich attended the meeting. (Continued on page 2)

Dr. Mason's Class Visits Clarinda

In order to view in practice the work being done in government soil conservation, Dr. Carol Y. Mason's Conservation class journeyed en masse to Clarinda, Iowa, on Friday afternoon, February 28. The subject of their visitation was the Government Soil Conservation Experiment Station located west of Clarinda.

There they were conducted by a supervisory employee throughout the station and viewed in actual progress what they had read about in classroom. The Clarinda station was selected for visitation because of the Marshall soil in that area which is continuous with the type of soil in this section of Northwest Missouri.

A registry is maintained at the station wherein visitors are invited to register their names. The class complied with this privilege. One member of the class, Miss Kua Saligupta, was in a conspicuous position as she signed the registry as a native of Bangkok, Thailand. Sensing that she was likely the only one from that country visiting at this far removed spot, she glanced over the registry to find that visitors were registered from British South Africa and Australia. However, the name of Miss "Sally" proved to be the only one from her homeland of Thailand.

Those making the trip were Dr. Carol Y. Mason, Geraldine Adams, John Dunlap, Paul Carson, Ricca Meyer, Kua Saligupta, and Vaughn Means.

Noted Musician Is Speaking on Enduring Values

Mr. Leide-Tedesco, With Fine Music Background, Has Broad Outlook.

Manoah Leide-Tedesco, composer, conductor, and critic in music, is a visitor today on the College campus. He is forum leader in the Fine Arts in the open forums sponsored by the Office of Education, United States Department of the Interior.

Mr. Leide-Tedesco is speaking this morning at the assembly on "Values Which Endure." One of the distinguished European musicians of his generation, Mr. Leide-Tedesco is able to interpret the lasting values of the arts in their close relationship to social issues and to the progress of American cultural creativeness. He believes that the horizon of the complete artist reaches beyond his own medium and embraces other fundamental factors.

The speaker, who is now an American citizen, has had wide European experience. He was educated at the University of Naples; the musical training from the beginning was imparted by several of the greatest living masters, including Pizetti pere, Karl Jirak, and Joseph Suk.

During the period from 1922 to 1932 Mr. Leide-Tedesco conducted many of the leading symphony orchestras of Prague, Vienna, and Pressburg. He has given many first performances of Ravel, De Falla, and Pizetti. Since coming to the United States, he has done much in fostering the newer perspectives in the American academic world. For several years he headed one of the music departments of the University of Illinois. From 1932 to 1935 he conducted the New Chamber Symphony of New York City. At present he is engaged in completing several symphonic works.

Warren Crow Takes Teaching Position

Warren Crow, who took his B. S. degree from the College in 1936 and his M. A. from the University of Wisconsin in 1937, has recently been appointed to an instructorship in the history department of the University of Wisconsin Extension Division. He will make his home in Appleton, Wisconsin, and will teach in the neighboring cities of Wisconsin Rapids, Menasha, and Green Bay.

In order to take this position, Mr. Crow had to resign his position as research assistant to Dr. Bessie L. Pierce of the University of Chicago. He has been working with her this year on a history of the city of Chicago, his research being related primarily to schools in the city.

This new position gives Mr. Crow opportunity to teach history exclusively and puts him again into association with the university from which he expects to take his Doctor's degree. He taught one summer term in a similar position.

Students Plan to Attend Conference

Approximately sixteen students of the College under the sponsorship of Dr. Henry A. Foster will attend the Mississippi Valley International Relations Club conference to be held at Warrensburg, March 28 and 29.

The College will be represented by Lols Langland and Vaughn Means. Miss Langland is preparing a paper on "A Proposed League of Nations for the West," and Mr. Means will aid in discussion groups treating the various aspects of democracy.

All students attending the conference will hear questions of international significance discussed by outstanding speakers in the realm of International Relations and by students of other colleges and universities. Well known speakers such as Mr. John Karakak of Park College, Dr. Josef L. Kunz, University of Toledo and Mr. C. Dale Fuller of the University of Denver will speak on various phases of International Relations.

For entertainment the committee in charge is sponsoring a dance to be held after the concert banquet on Friday evening. Escort service is being provided.

Members of the International Relations Club are not the only ones invited to attend the conference. Anyone interested in the social science field or in world affairs is urged to be present.

It is estimated that the cost of the trip need not exceed four dollars. The Chamber of Commerce of Warrensburg is cooperating to help our students find rooms and secure other accommodations while attending the Conference.

All persons who wish to attend should see Dr. Henry A. Foster at once so that all necessary reservations may be made.

Truth and Freedom

"And the truth shall make you free"
Was the motto for youth of yester-year;
But youth to-day loves truth as well,
And freedom to-day is just as dear.

Dr. Shively Is Taking Mr. Howard's Classes

Mr. F. T. Howard, who was recently forced to give up his teaching at the College, has gone to Nodaway, Iowa, where he will rest before returning to Mayo's clinic in Rochester, Minnesota. He hopes to return to the College before the end of the spring quarter.

Dr. S. B. Shively, of Crete, Nebraska, will have charge of Mr. Howard's classes. Dr. Shively received his degree in Botany from the University of Nebraska.

Re-decoration at Residence Hall Is Nearly Completed

Walls of Solarium and of Sleeping Porch Are Done Over in Modern Mode.

A major project in redecorating at Residence Hall is nearing completion. Every corridor in the building has been repainted, the upper walls, in cream, and the bases, brown gray with black stencil.

The solarium on the second floor features a delft blue east side wall, with the ceiling, and other side walls in, warm beige. The woodwork is white, and the window draperies are gray-white with red stripes.

In the sleeping porch on the third floor, the ceiling and west wall are warm beige; the other walls, coral-rose. Here, too, the woodwork is white. The center of interest is a false fireplace, painted marble white with a black closed front. Above the fireplace are decorative heads of horses stenciled in green, coral rose, and yellow.

The floors in the sleeping porch and solarium have been refinished and are in the natural wood color. All of the beds are to be finished in sand brown.

The powder rooms are to have a color scheme of green and canary yellow walls with ivory woodwork. The lavatories and showers are to be pale green with ivory woodwork.

The work has been done by W. P. A. and N. Y. A. workers, under the directions of Mr. Hayes, the College painter. The designs, colors, and decorative plans are in harmony with the most modern ideas and modes in interior decorations.

The refinishing has added immeasurably to the good appearance and pleasant atmosphere of the upper floors of the Residence Hall.

"Y" Chooses Vice-President
Ruth Pfander was elected vice-president of the Y. W. C. A. at the meeting Thursday evening, February 27, to succeed Hope Wray, who graduated at the end of the winter quarter.

Paul Fields, who attended the College during the winter quarter, has accepted a position at Osborn. He will be principal of the Osborn Schools.

Annual Conference to Be Led by Dr. Kilpatrick

Dr. William H. Kilpatrick, philosopher, master teacher, writer, and lecturer, formerly of Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, and now devoting his time to writing and lecturing, will be on the College campus, March 29, to assist in the Sixth Annual Elementary Conference.

He will give his principal address "The Next Steps Ahead," at 10 o'clock. This will be followed by a panel discussion in which Dr. Kilpatrick will direct some 15 or 20 panel leaders from this district.

After starting the discussion and leading up to the various issues involved, Dr. Kilpatrick will divide all who attend the conference into groups under the leaders to continue the discussion.

At 2 o'clock he will bring the conference together again and summarize the "Steps Ahead."

The women's Physical Education department will present two demonstrations: one at 9:30 in the morning for grades 3, 7, and 8 and another at 1:30 for grades 1 to 5.

Dr. Dow Works With National Committee

Dr. Blanche H. Dow, a member of the national committee of the American Association of University Women on Membership and Maintaining Standards, will go to Washington, D. C., for a meeting of the committee March 15-17.

On Monday of this week Dr. Dow was in liberty to see the work of William Jewell College in the interests of this committee. She spent the day in conferences and in looking over the various phases of the college activities. February 28 and March 1, Dr. Dow visited the State Teachers College at Conway, Arkansas, and Henderson Teachers College at Arkadelphia, Arkansas, on a similar mission.

College Debaters and Orator Go to Contest

Natchitoches, Louisiana, about 1,200 miles from Maryville, will be the place of a great debate and oration tournament in which the College will enter contestants.

Miss Gladys Bookman, chairman of the Speech department, with Herschel Bryant, Frank Ewing, and Walter Burks, left for the South on Wednesday, March 12. They went by automobile, expecting to make the trip in two days.

Four rounds of preliminary debates will be held on Friday. Three of the four debates must be won by a team in order to go into the elimination rounds on Saturday, March 15. In the oratory contest, in which Walter Burks will compete, a speaker must win on the first day to go into the finals on Saturday.

Lols Langland, Leland Hamilton, and Albert Quillin remained in Maryville between quarters.

Varsity Quartet Sings Before Civic Club

The College Varsity Quartet presented a twenty minute program of vocal music at the Civic Club Thursday night.

The Quartet, composed of Marlin Johnson, Lewis Horton, Ralph Remy, and Leslie Somerville sang the following numbers accompanied by Mrs. H. N. Schuster:
Swedish Student Song—Ahlstrom
Italian Street Song—Herbert
Southern Moon—Strickland
Brothers Sing On—Grieg
I Dream Of Jeannie With The Light Brown Hair—Foster
Hoodah Day—arr. by Winslow
Miss Rosalie Roark sang the obligato in the "Italian Street Song" and Lewis Horton played two violin solos, "Adagio" by Bizet, and "Air on G String" by Bach. Mildred Niccum accompanied Mr. Horton.

New Editor Assumes Duties on Missourian

With this issue, Bertha Mildred Nelson, a senior in College, takes over the editorship of the Northwest Missourian. Her appointment was made by the Student Senate and confirmed by the administration.

Miss Nelson is not new on the staff. She has worked as associate editor since last fall.

Home economics is Miss Nelson's major. She is living this quarter at the Management House. She is a member of Kappa Omicron Phi, home economics fraternity. Her home is at Gulfport.

The new editor takes the place left vacant by Max Rush, who resigned when he received notice of his appointment to the Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Raymond Houston, who is superintendent of schools at Rock Port, has been renamed to his position for the coming year.

Betty Bower visited her parents in Cowdell during the vacation between quarters.

College Starts Regular Sunday Morning Service

Head of Art Department Has Place on Program Given by Art Group.

Beginning Sunday, March 16, the College is inaugurating "The Sunday Morning Hour," a religious service to be held on campus, at the Horace Mann Auditorium, every Sunday morning from 9:30 to 10:30 o'clock. All College people are invited to attend.

At the first meeting President Uel W. Lamkin will be the speaker. His subject will have to do with teaching religion.

It is the hope that this Sunday Morning Hour will build on the campus an institution that will promote religious growth which is intellectually valid, emotionally satisfying, and ethically effective. It is its purpose to give an opportunity for acquaintance with the influence of religion on life, to give broad considerations to the contributions of religion to the solution of individual and social problems of the world today.

The faculty committee which is helping develop plans is composed of President Uel W. Lamkin, Miss Marian Lippitt, Dr. Blanche H. Dow, Dr. Harry G. Dildine, Mr. Wilbur Stalcup, Miss Katherine Franken, and Mr. Sterling Surrey.

Only general plans have as yet been made. Many students are interested and at work on details.

The Executive Program committee is composed of Lols Langland, chairman; Priscilla Feagans, Jane Carlock, Ralph Remy, Richard Miller, and Lucille Jeffery. To this committee will fall the work of coordinating the program numbers provided by the specialized committees.

The Speakers Group of the Program Committee includes Mary Madgett, chairman; Francis Smith, Wes McClaren, Werner Herz, Ellis Bray, and Charlotte Meyer.

The Music Group of the Program Committee is made up of Dora Miller, chairman; Marlin Johnson, (Continued on page 4)

Personal Appraisal Week Plans Disclose Interesting Features

Commission Type of Program Is Started

The "Y" groups initiated the commission type of program plan on Thursday evening, March 13, when the Arts Appreciation commission conducted a program consisting of a survey of religious music, featuring recorded and piano music. Mary Virginia Beck was in charge of this program.

The commission type program plan was suggested by Miss Fern Babcock of Kansas City, who told of its success in other colleges where it has been tried. The Y program committee, composed of John Carl Dunlap, Lols Langland, Emily Gillette, and Paul Smith, proposed that the plan be adopted on this campus because of its advantage for the entire Y membership. The plan has been effective wherever instituted because of the fact that it gives each member a definite responsibility for part of a program he is interested in.

The entire program for one quarter is divided into four commissions, each of which is responsible for about three programs during the quarter. Each "Y" member is allowed to choose the commission developing the topic he is most interested in. Each group will decide the type of program it will present each time.

The presidents of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. organizations feel that this type of program will allow students to express their own ideas and take an active part in a program suitable for college students. Some place in this program every student should find something of especial interest.

The commissions and the chairman elected by each group are: Religious Forum, Vernon Kurz; Campus Affairs, Paul Smith; Art Appreciation, Emily Gillette; Recreation, Ruth Pfander.

Miss DeLuce Invited to Opening of Gallery of Art

Miss Olive DeLuce, chairman of the department of fine arts at STC, has the distinction of being one of the few in this area to receive an invitation to the opening of the new National Gallery of Art in Washington, D. C., on Monday night, March 17.

The new gallery will house the art collection of the late Andrew Mellon. President Roosevelt will officiate at the dedication ceremony and will be accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt. Members of congress, other government officials and the leaders of art and educational institutions throughout the nation are expected to attend.

Kansas City is said to have drawn more invitations to the dedication and opening than any other western city, and there are about a dozen or more couples from that city who have been invited.

On Tuesday, March 18, the gallery will be open to the public and will probably share the interest of the spring tourists who go to Washington for the cherry blossom season.

Class in Fine Arts Displays Handwork

A dark blue velvet jerkin, embroidered in light blue, the handwork of Dody Weems, and a blue apron with applique in yellow and red made by Bessie Belcher are a part of the exhibit on second floor of the Administration building.

Turned wood bowls made by James Glaze, Ellis Reynolds, Raphael Sigrist, Ralph King, and Donald Norberg are also a part of the display of work from Fine Arts 11.

Lora Mariatt has worked out and painted an interesting design on a flower pot.

Various embroidered and applique articles complete the exhibit. All of the designs are the original work of the students.

Ada Clark's Work Is Subject for Article

Miss Ada Clark in her work as a creative writer was the subject of a long feature article in the St. Joseph News-Press of March 2. Miss Clark, a former student of the College, was active in the Writers Club during her time spent at the College.

The article states that Miss Clark is the author of four books and is a steady contributor to various papers and magazines. Since 1926 she has published 1,065 compositions, including poems, pageants, playlets for children, and poems, greeting card verses.

Recently sonnets by Miss Clark have appeared in the Kansas City Star. Her work is included in many anthologies.

Frank Baker was in St. Joseph last Friday.

Conferences Will Be Held for All Who Arrange for Them; Clinic Will Also Give Aid.

"Of course you are tall and skinny, but why admit it to the world by wearing straight - up - and - down clothes? And you are fat, but you need not make yourself look fatter by flaunting that gay sweater with the stripes running around to make you look like a barrel with many hoops."

"You should be very popular with that soft and charmingly sweet voice of yours."

"Your formal is exactly right for you—it could make you look like a queen—but the way you stand makes one think of an old song that used to be popular: 'Are you a flapper? A flip-flapping flapper without any starch in your spine?'"

Such remarks will doubtless be heard on the campus of the Northwest Missouri State Teachers College during the week of March 18-21, the date set for the annual Personal Appraisal Clinic. That date means next week, and all of the College community will be on the alert to stimulate interest in good grooming, good posture, good voice, good appearance generally.

Students will be given the opportunity to have private conferences with experts, who will give advice and encouragement in all matters of personal qualities. The clinic has proved popular in former years; indications are that it will be none the less popular this year.

Mrs. Mary Jane King, fashion and foods writer of the Kansas City Journal, will be the visiting consultant for the clinic. Mrs. King comes well recommended and promises to offer many helpful suggestions to students on the campus. She will be available for fifteen minute individual conferences with interested students.

The general plans, as outlined by the Director of Personnel for Women, include group meetings as well as individual conferences.

Tuesday is women's day, that is, special attention will be given to their dress problems. Individual conferences will be held from 9 until 11 o'clock and again from 1:30 until 4:00. Appointments for these conferences may be made in the office of the Director of Personnel for Women at any time. As the time available is of course, limited, those desiring conferences should make appointments as soon as possible.

In addition to the regular individual conferences which are to be an important part of the daily schedule, there will be a demonstration clinic held at 11 o'clock on Tuesday. This clinic will be repeated at 4. Social Hall will be the place of meeting.

These clinics are open to any who wish to attend them, but are especially for the benefit of those who cannot have individual conferences, Miss Lippitt said.

As consultant for men, the College has secured Mr. Albert Christ-Janer from Columbia, Mo. Mr. Christ-Janer is head of the Art department of Stephens College and has had wide experience in the field of personal appraisal. For some time he was with a large department store in Chicago as consultant on styles.

Wednesday will be set aside as men's day. In addition to Mr. Christ-Janer there will also be a representative from Woolf Brothers Company, Kansas City, present. There will be a general assembly at 10 o'clock, and a seminar session at (Continued on page 2)

Miss Cozine Studies Education Problem

Miss June Cozine, now on a leave of absence from the Home Economics faculty of the College, has returned to her work in Chicago after a week at the College here. She came to confer with members of the Agriculture, Commerce, Home Economics, and Industrial Arts Departments in pursuance of the problem on which she is working under the direction of Dr. Ralph N. Tyler, Director of the American Council of Education Study of General Education.

Miss Cozine, who received a General Education Board Fellowship last December, is collaborating with the various departments in the four areas: agriculture, commerce, home economics, and industrial arts, in securing data for the General Education problem to which she was assigned after accepting the fellowship. The fellowship entitled her to six month's research.

Who Knows the Answer? Who?

What's this about convention being reversed on the College campus? What message is forthcoming from the ether waves sounding big news to all co-eds and all versions of Joe College? What happened to February 29 on this year? What can be done to make up for that important day? These and all manner of questions arise when one hears rumors of forthcoming social activity on the College campus. Who knows the answers? Only the members of the Student Social Committee and they won't talk until—

Girls start saving your pennies, learn now to use that telephone shrewdly, and note with interest the customs and manners of your escort for, who knows what they all may mean ere long?

Boys, can you stand great shock? Will you be a conformist, however trying the task at hand? Is this a man's world at all times? What manner of social reform can one expect as he reads such queries? All that can be learned is that something unprecedented will burst forth in enthusiasm soon. Watch, listen, and wait patiently even if the suspense is ter-r-r-r-ific.

It seems that those close to the most informative position can only glean a drift of what is to happen, but their surmise is that it is stupendous, colossal, and shattering of tradition. For the latest development consult all manner of publicity.

From the Dean

"Now is the high tide of the year."

And each of us has the opportunity to recover that which has slipped away, to do better our daily task, to respond to that urge to do something worthy of our heritage, and to make our contribution to the work of the world. But beware! There is a fever that comes with the spring that tends to shatter all high resolves. Do not let it break down your ideals during this Spring Quarter.

The Sigma Phi girl's swimming club will begin practicing for the swimming exhibition which they will present April 3. Practices will be held at 7:30 every Monday night at the pool beginning March 17. All college girls are invited to participate whether they swim or not.

Personal Appraisal Week

I wish to emphasize the importance of the Personal Appraisal Week program. Each student of this College should make an extra effort to avail himself of very opportunity presented during the week's activities.

Quotable Quotes

"Education in any country at any time is the disciplinary experience which an older generation arranges for its children. Education's purpose always includes an effort to preserve satisfactorily the institutions of the family, the clan, or the state."

"Basically, the educational problem is simple. The process may become as inclusive as you make it, but basically it is to guarantee to each child the disciplinary experience that will preserve the American institutions he inherits, home and family; school, church and community; an economic task; suffrage in a democracy; and sufficient leisure and space to enjoy the blessings which these bring."

—Aurelia H.

Reinhardt, President of Mills College.

"I have sometimes wondered whether it would be possible to free ourselves from a good deal of troublesome interference simply by making the assumption that in a college we are no longer dealing with children, but with adults. On such an assumption, we could offer them a hard life intellectually, not an easy one. Even if we were offering them something quite new, a fresh science or a fresh language, we should introduce them to it strenuously, without waste of time."

"There is one thing more which I believe to be essential to the success of honors work in a college—the provision of a number of open scholarships which might be competed for by freshmen, or possibly by sophomores from all parts of the country. This should supply a nucleus of students of first-rate ability, who would set the necessary high standard of advanced work, without which there is no justification for giving honors at all."

—Herbert J. Davis,

President of Smith College.

A Beautiful Student Center

The Student Center begins to look like a real lounge in the true sense of the word now that the new furniture is beginning to arrive. Four lovely davenports and two easy chairs are already here. They are upholstered in serviceable, but attractive, blue mohair.

As students look into the future, they see the windows covered with harmonizing upholstery or with gay cretonne; they see pictures on the walls; they see tables, soft rugs, and beautiful lamps; they see books and magazines in fact, they see a charming, homelike room where they may meet and converse with their friends. They see the Student Center growing under their own initiative into the kind of place which will be their pride and joy as long as they are in college and the gathering place when they return as alumni.

No one can have failed to observe the fine effect the beautiful new library has had upon those who make use of it. The same fine effect should result from the Student Center. As it becomes more beautiful—and it should become more so with the passing of time—its effect will grow. Thoreau once said: "The perception of beauty is a moral test." With equal truth it might be said, "By the contemplation of beauty man is taught and exalted." It should be the delight of every student to make and keep the Center beautiful.

In beautiful surroundings the fine art of conversation should develop. "It is very certain," says Emerson, "that sincere and happy conversation doubles our powers; that in the effort to unfold our thought to a friend we make it clear to ourselves."

Dear Diary

Dear Diary:

I can't believe this is really spring quarter, already. Why, it hardly seems more than last week I was wading through piles of dead leaves with my little green cap and mallet, to match. The world was so big, and wonderful, then, even Alice. She'd been here summer, winter and, convinced me that what she didn't know about everything could be wrapped in cork and put through a pin hole. I depended on her to tell me which blonde to date, how to pass Humanities without incurring a nervous breakdown, and how many times you can cut French class and still pass. Then I decided this living by remote control was like having somebody else eat your breakfast for you. Now the only thing I ask her is whether she's going to wear my red sweater, or the blue one. She's been glowing all week because I made, only 7.5 hours, and at present her rating, with me, is about ten notches lower than a black shirt in Athens. You always get so much more out of a course the second time. But she had to have something to be smug about after the man she had already surveyed, stalked, and claimed as Personal Property took me to the tournament and left her sitting flat as an Iowa corn field. When I got in just now she was lying in bed with that hurt, how could you do this to me look and the radio going loud enough to give half the population of the state of Kansas chronic insomnia, and in spite of myself I had to be nice to her. In fact, I even promised never to date him again and only to talk to him when it was necessary. I never liked boys who won't yell at games, anyway.

Old Receipt Covers Time From Creation

BURLINGTON, VT. — (ACP) — More than 135 years have passed since Azarias Williams filed away a receipt for $5 which he had just received from Paul Brigham. These 135 years are not covered by the receipt, dated October 24, 1804, but all the years from the Creation to that date were.

This most inclusive of receipts was found among 5,000 miscellaneous documents containing information regarding lands owned by the University of Vermont which have been collected and arranged by NYA workers.

The receipt reads like this: "Received at Montpelier, October 24, 1804, of Azarias Williams, Five Dollars in full payment of all demands in note, Board Bill, work, or on account of every name and nature whatsoever from the beginning of the world to the above date. Rep'd. by me Paul Brigham"

Personal Appraisal Week Plans Disclose Interesting Feature

11 o'clock and again at 4 with Mr. Albert Christ - Janer in charge. On Thursday a representative from Rothschild's, Kansas City, will be present. The group meetings on Thursday will be in the form of panel discussions. They will again be held at eleven and at four o'clock. The culmination of the personal appraisal clinic will be a clothes show held at 4 o'clock on Friday afternoon. The clothes to be shown will be practical fashions that appear regularly on the campus. The various different fashions to be shown will be modeled by college students.

The display will be divided into three parts, Day Time, Date, Time, and Dance Time. These will show practical fashions for campus wear.

Miss Truex said that she hoped to demonstrate good basic wardrobes for men and women. She explained that she hoped to have three different basic wardrobes for women, in black, brown, and navy. There will be at least one basic wardrobe for men; this will probably be in brown.

This is not to be merely a fashion show but is intended to emphasize good grooming in general, said Miss Truex. She also said that she would stress American Designs by American designers. There will be a posture demonstration between the first and second parts of the show. This will be sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association. There will also be a skit sponsored by the Speech department, and a demonstration by the art department.

The Stroller...

The Stroller hates to admit that he has been snooping a little on faculty this week; but if he does not, how is he going to tell some of the honors which were made on examination papers? Here is one that is too good to keep:

The question in Humanities read: "What is an oratorio?" The answer read: "An oratorio is a musical work presented without action, scenery, or clothing." Some words which mean the same thing are not interchangeable!

Special to Stroller—

Ralph Krightlight (While peeling bushels of potatoes on K. P. duty at Camp Jackson) What does K. P., mean, anyway?

Larry Blakely: You ought to know that. It means keep peeling.

The Stroller has heard that the Y party on Thursday evening is being called a "necking party." He knows that the usual sense of the word is not meant, but what under the sun can it mean? He supposes the only way to find out is to go and see. It won't cost much, and Y parties are always fun.

Nocturne

It is strange that I, who once loved night,
Should feel such terror, as the light
Fades into mist, and gathering gloom
Creeps like a cat, into my room,
And shadows fall with darkened dread
To veil in shades my lonely bed.
The night wind wails, and then is still
With heavy, grim foreboding till
The walls close in, I cry aloud
As night enfolds me, like a shroud.

Ladies Escort Dates When They Entertain

Clever corsages made of vegetables, gum drops, and sugar cubes, were given to the guests of the Varsity Villagers' members, at a Leap Year box supper, Friday, March 7. The supper was held in the Student Center rooms. After attending the Maryville-Union Wire basketball game, the girls escorted their dates back to the Student Center rooms where they danced for the remainder of the evening.

Girls who called for their escorts caused a great deal of amusement, in most cases, to the room mates who had gathered to watch the proceedings. The girls presented corsages to their dates, walked off the outside as is the custom, and helped them with their wraps. As the girls and their guests ate the box supper prepared by the girls, the group sang songs. Several novelty dances were arranged, such as the pop dance and bottle opener dance. Eleanor Hartness was chairman of all of the arrangements for the box supper.

The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Main, and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Dorn. The honored guests were Miss Marian Lippitt, Miss Dorothy Trux, Leland Hamilton, and Ralph Remy.

W. Durrett Arranges Revue Compositions

This week's article about the personalities involved in the making of the All-College revue to be given this quarter, the third in a series of four, features Warren Durrett, College dance band arranger and pianist.

Mr. Durrett, 20 years old, a sophomore in the College, is tall and slender, with black hair and black eyes. He has a pleasing personality, and though he has not long attended the College, is well known to students and faculty members. A music major, he has succeeded in winning a place for himself in the College musical organization and activities.

At the present time, Mr. Durrett arranges music for the College dance orchestra, and also plays the piano in the same organization. In addition to this, he plays both trumpet and saxophone, and, in leisure time, tries his hand at composing.

Before coming to College here, he attended Oklahoma University for one year, and during that year was affiliated with the Boomer orchestra, one of the leading popular orchestras in Oklahoma. He played the trumpet in this orchestra, and also arranged the music featured by the same group. A number of his arrangements were, incidentally, featured over a local radio station.

After his year at Oklahoma, Mr. Durrett came to St. Joseph, where he secured a job at the Hotel Robidoux. Here he was featured, with another young musician named Lamborn, for a full month's engagement in the Robidoux Cocktail Lounge, the team being a piano and vibraphone duo. After this engagement, Durrett came to Maryville and, in the winter quarter, entered the College. Since then, he has been active in College musical circles, and recently undertook to make the arrangements for the original compositions which will be featured in the College revue.

The young man has also composed two popular numbers which will be among those included in the revue. The titles and types of songs he has written will be announced later, when the arrangements of the entire group of numbers to be included in the revue are completed.

"Freddie" Writes News of Interest From Ft. Jackson

Tells of Growth Which He Has Seen in Camp and of Battery C Work.

Corporal Fred E. Davidson, formerly of the College and now located at Fort Jackson, South Carolina, writes of the activities of the 128 Field Artillery in which former Maryville boys have taken part. He tells, too, of some of the improvements which have been made at Fort Jackson. Excerpts from his letter follow:

"Three months have made a tremendous change in the population and physical appearance of Ft. Jackson. Last summer there was only a handful of men stationed at the post, compared with today's strength, and the number of buildings standing at that time wouldn't house a third of a division.

"The huge construction program launched in September has resulted in the completion of 1000 permanent buildings, and the post's strength has grown from 200 to the present 31,500 officers and men. Now it is one of the biggest and most important reservations in the South.

"The $13,000,000 which were spent here during the last five months has been used to construct more than 100 permanent buildings, 8848 frame tents, and hundreds of auxiliary buildings. The latter include mess halls, recreation halls, latrines, post exchanges, two large utility shops, five fire houses, bakery, laundry, water filtration plant, two tent theatres, a post hospital—which at present is being enlarged—and others.

Weapons Range Constructed
"A modern weapons range is being constructed on which almost every type of gun can be fired. New roads in the camp proper are halfway completed under the road improvement plan which eventually will provide 65 miles of good roadway through the post. Five roads are now under construction which will run the length of the reservation, with dozens of cross-roads connecting these main routes.

"The area of the reservation has also been increased. The War Department has acquired title to 31,600 additional acres, boosting the size of the Post to 64,000 acres. Recently a new Post Headquarters building was completed and is now in use. The 30th Division headquarters unit expanded its office space three-fold.

"All the camps of the 8th and 30th Divisions, except for finishing touches such as painting and scattered buildings, have been completed, as well as camps for two corps regiments, and the station complement.

"As of January 28, the strength of the post was 31,485 officers and men. There are 29,794 enlisted men, 15 warrant officers, and 1676 officers.

"The construction program, further advanced than any other camp in the IV Corps Area, is expected to be enlarged still more by letting an additional contract to total $5,000,000. This will run the cost of construction at the fort to a grand total of $18,000,000.

Soldiers Write Letters
"Mail distribution was speeded up at Fort Jackson recently as the main postoffice sent registered, special delivery, and insured mail with the regular mail deliveries to the eighth and thirtieth division branch post office. The Division postoffice branches now handle the mail of their divisions more efficiently than the main postoffice was able to handle the large volume of Fort Jackson correspondence in the past. The 32,000 officers and enlisted men of Fort Jackson mail approximately 30,000 letters through the three postoffices each day.

"The 128th Field Artillery Basketball team won a double header here Wednesday, February 19, setting back Mayo's O. P. O. quintet 28-18 and topping the Pelton All-Stars 36-29. The following are men from Battery 'C' who are on the squad: Gale Donahue, Russell Insley, Glenn Oberknecht, Jack Blohm, Jack Oberknecht, Eddie Goodpasture, and George Bland. The team is coached by 1st Lt. Guy R. Russell, executive officer of Battery 'C'.

"The 128th Field Artillery Band has helped to build up the reputation of the 128th and to let the people in South Carolina know that the Missouri boys are here. The band group started their work with Church services at camp every week. At Christmas time the ensemble group visited the Post Hospital and sang songs in the wards and halls. The 128th Field Artillery Band was selected over five other bands here at the fort to furnish the music for a N. B. C. broadcast. It has also played for a local broadcast.

"Music was furnished at the 8th Division Boxing matches, by our band. The band played several compositions before the bouts began and during the intermission. Don Wilson was an added feature during the intermission. He climbed into the ring and gave an excellent exhibition of baton-twirling and flag-tossing.

"The orchestra played for a recent reception in Columbia for the Governor of South Carolina.

"The dance band was very popular at the Swing Jamboree in Columbia last week which featured six dance bands.

"The third Regimental Concert by the 128th Field Artillery Band was conducted Sunday, February 23, starting at 8:00 P. M. in the Recreation Hall. Song specialties and a wide variety of music was presented to the personnel of the regiment and their families and guests."

"Band members who attended the College are: Sergeants, John W. Liddle and Kenneth B. Tebow; corporals, Mahlon S. Hamilton and Charles L. Hutchinson; Privates First Class, Max J. Babb, Joe P. Beavers, James S. Bennett, John J. Dilling, Thomas W. Boyd, Joseph D. Driver, Stanley M. Forbes, Charles P. May, Ralph A. McMullen, Ray B. Newton, Emmett B. Riffe, Charles W. Tebow, Donald L. Weeda, and Donald E. Wilson."

Mary Virginia Garner attended a basketball tournament which was held in Winston Friday.

Bearcats Win Over South Dakota and Texas Men Matched With Kentucky STC in Quarter Finals

After a fast start which was soon halted by the opposing team, the Bearcats settled down to a slow but sure game to win over Dakota Wesleyan, 35-31, in the first round of the National Intercollegiate Tournament in Kansas City, Monday night.

The Maryville team, suffering from injuries, relied on reserve men during much of the game. Harold Hutcherson fell during the first half, bruising his already injured back. Jack Salmon was not in the starting line-up because of an injured shoulder received in the Springfield game.

Sharp shooter Davis Johnson, Wesleyan guard, gave the Maryville boys a headache with his accurate shooting from the floor, scoring 18 points. When Hutcherson returned to the game he struck a scoring spree to run his own total up to 14 points for high score for the Bearcats.

Wednesday night Maryville scored an upset against Stephen F. Austin College of Texas by winning over them 34 to 28 after leading only 2 points at the half. Hull was high point man with 9 and Salmon was close behind with 8 points.

Control of the ball and a tight defense, especially around the high-powered Van Samford, enabled the Bearcats to eliminate one of the seeded teams. Samford, who in his first game in the tourney scored 31 points, was held to two field goals and two free throws with Harold Hull and Harold Hutcherson alternating in doing yomen's work.

Although Maryville didn't have an easy go of the battle which seemed in the first half, the Bearcats weren't forced to extend themselves to win. They built up an 8-point lead, 28 to 20, after the first ten minutes of the second half and controlled the ball effectively for the remainder of the game.

Make 14 Free Throws

Only once before this season has Austin been held in check so effectively. Against the Southeast Oklahoma Teachers they were held to 28 points, their other lowest score of the season. Samford, who has averaged 19 points a game throughout the season, was bottled up around the basket and the scoring duties fell to L. Franks.

Conversion of free throws played an important part in Austin's score, the Lumberjacks making fourteen points on charity tosses. However, both teams were not as efficient as they should have been on free throws. Maryville missing eleven and Austin missing eight. Peanuts Hull, who dumped in four field goals and a free throw for high point scorer for Maryville, missed six attempts from the free throw line. Meanwhile B. Franks hit five out of eight for Austin.

The Bearcats hit 27.4 per cent of their shots from the field, getting 9 out of 32 in the first half and five out of 19 in the second half.

Intra-Mural Teams Lose in Tournament

Both of the College intra-mural teams were defeated in the semi-finals of the "Y" tournament at St. Joseph Tuesday night. The Ramblers, composed of an all-star team from the local Intra-mural Tournament, were defeated by the Leadways 39-26. The Ramblers led the Leadways during most of the game, but in the last five minutes the latter spurred to a victory.

The K. P. Boys, winners of the local Intra-mural tournament, were defeated by the Dammens Mills of St. Joseph to the tune of 45-28.

The two teams played the consolation game Wednesday night before the championship game. After a close game until the closing minutes, the K. P. boys pulled ahead to win 36 to 33 over the Ramblers. Incidentally the winners of the tournament, the Leadways, had two former College boys in its lineup; Harold Wiseman, who was high point man, and Harold Hawk.

Bearcats Co-Champions of MIAA; Place Three Men on All-Star Team

Hull and Johnson Make First Team; Hutcherson Second

Mules and Bearcats Divide Honors for MIAA Season; 8 Wins, 2 Losses.

When the coaches, officials, and sports writers chose the 1941 all-star basketball team for the Associated Press, they honored Harold (Peanuts) Hull for the third straight year.

Hull, a forward on the present aggregation, was the all-star center a year ago and held a similar post on the second team in 1939.

Shores at Center

Teaming with the Maryville ace as forward on the honor five is Herbert Mulkey of Cape Girardeau. Kirkville's John Shores, the league's leading scorer, is at center and Charles Richardson, Warrensburg, and Don Johnson, Maryville, are the guards.

Hull, not as effective as he was a year ago when Maryville romped to the title with an unblemished record, is a senior. His height, 6 feet, 3 inches, is an inch above the first team's average.

Mulkey Played Center

Mulkey, the other all-star forward, also was a center during the regular season, stuffing in 116 points for Coach C. P. Harris' Indians during the 10-game MIAA champion. He is regarded only as a fair defensive player but outstanding at the art of rebounding.

The Indian pivot is a junior and is the exact height of Hull. Shores is the tallest man, 6 feet 4 inches, to make the top lineup and used his size to pile in the points for the Bulldogs. His height made him one of the hardest players in the loop to guard and rival coaches already are seeking a formula to halt him next year, his last in the circuit.

Johnson Up From Reserves

Johnson stepped up from the reserves ranking he won a season ago in his last campaign as the defensive star of Coach Wilbur Stalcup's Bearcats. Both he and Richardson, who shares the back court duties with him, are 6 feet, 1 1/2 inches tall.

One coach, not his own, described Richardson as the conference's fastest man and a player smart enough to know how to use it.

Robert Bruce, guard on the second team with George Nelmark of Kirkville, last year brought the Missouri Mines a first team berth.

Don Martin, the 6 foot, 8 inch part time pivot of the Warrensburg Mules, was an easy choice for that job behind Shores, Cleetus Helms, a teammate throughout the year, won a similar job by clinching a forward post with the seconds.

Hutcherson on Second Team

Harold Hutcherson of Maryville, repeated on the reserves to complete the aggregation.

As a whole, the voters expressed the opinion the conference enjoyed one of its peak years with the talent so equally distributed that the title can't be awarded until the final contest.

Springfield, unable to finish in the first division of its own league, still was good enough to defeat the University of Missouri for one of the season's highlights.

Tie Championship

After changing hands nearly every week of the past basketball season, the MIAA conference lead was finally shared by the Maryville Bearcats and the Warrensburg Mules. Both teams defeated Springfield in their final contests to end the season with 8 wins and 2 losses.

The Maryville boys were playing for double stakes when they met Springfield last Thursday night; the honor of being co-winners of the conference championship, and determining whether or not they would be eligible to enter the National Inter-collegiate tournament being held this week in Kansas City. Officials of the tournament informed Mr. E. A. Davis, Athletic Director, early in the week before the game that if the Bearcats won their final game they would be invited to the National Inter-collegiate.

While the Maryville team won the final tilt of the conference 38-30 it was never so far ahead of the Springfield team that there was danger of the lead being overcome.

Mitchell was first to score for the Bears with a freethrow, but he was followed soon by one of the long shots that Captain Salmon has the habit of dropping in from time to time. Springfield went ahead on a field goal by Mitchell. Then Hull took a long pass down the court from Hutcherson and scored. For the next ten minutes the lead changed hands with almost every revolution of the minute hand on the time clock, but in the last five minutes before the half, Hicks, Salmon, and Don Johnson scored to put Maryville ahead 17-13 when the buzzer sounded.

After the intermission Maryville enlarged its lead on scoring done by Eddie Johnson, Don Johnson, and Hull. Lechner bolstered his own team's scoring with several buckets, but he was playing such a fast game, which usually leads to excessive fouling, that he was sent to the benches with 4 personals. After that Mitchell undertook to put the Bears back in the running, taking several shots and making some of them good; however, his attempts to fake Hull and dribble around him were foiled, since "Peanuts" is a fair faker himself and was wise to Mitchell's attempts.

Don Johnson closed Maryville's scoring by following an attempted freethrow for a goal. Ahnert, Springfield reserve man, sank a semi-long shot just before the end of the game.

Bearcats Win From Union Wire and Ropes

The Bearcats halted their conference play, Friday, February 28, to defeat the champions of the National league from Kansas City by a 49-39 score. Both teams lost players on personal fouls, the Ropes committing 25 and the Bearcats 22. Hull and D. Johnson tied for scoring honors with 18 points each.

The lead shifted from one side to the other throughout the game. After Lobsiger scored a free throw, Hull and D. Johnson followed with a shot from under the basket and one from the side respectively. "Chief" West and John Lobsiger, former Big Six All-Star, gave Union a 6-5 lead, but Hull scored on a set-up and a free throw, giving Maryville the lead again. This alternating scoring lasted all through the first half, Ropes holding a 23-22 lead when the buzzer sounded.

In the beginning of the second half D. Johnson tied the score with a free throw, and then gave the Bearcats the lead with another free throw. Salmon and Walker added to the scoring, and after eight minutes had passed Maryville led 31-25. The

From the Sidelines

Bob Elmsinger, animated pep chief for the student body during the past two quarters, made his last appearance before them, until next year at least, at the ball game at the close of the last quarter. Bob left his home in St. Joseph this week to go into spring baseball training at the Cardinals' Camp in Sacramento, California. He has been playing professional ball for the past two years.

Bob said that he "certainly appreciated the co-operation of my two assistants, Helen Adams and Evelyn Overy, and of the student body and Student Senate." He plans to return here next fall.

Francis Stubbs, graduate of class of 1940, is the coach of the Burlington Junction basketball team, winners of the West Nodaway County League, this year.
